The Newsletter

Thoughts from the Pastor's Pen November, December 2019

Dear Deering Community Church, UCC and Friends,

Richard Rohr's new book The Universal Christ: How a Forgotten Reality Can Change Everything We See, Hope For and Believe, is a quite profound look at the Universality of Christ as a force, energy, and power that goes way beyond our more simple understandings of Christianity and what it means to be a Christian in a world of multiple religions and Ways. He writes,

"Christ...(is) clearly not just Jesus of Nazareth but something much more immense, even cosmic in significance. How that is so, and why it matters, is the subject of this book. Once encountered, I believe this vision has the power to radically alter what we believe, how we see others and relate to them, our sense of how big God might be, and our understanding of what the Creator is doing in our world...."

"What if Christ is a name for the transcendence within of every "thing" in the universe? (Transcendence = the supremacy, wholeness or divine existence)

"What if Christ is the name for the immense spaciousness of all true Love?

"What if Christ refers to an infinite horizon that pulls us from within and pulls us forward too?

"What if Christ is another name for everything---in its fullness? (pp. 3&5)

Our Advent and Lenten Study of Rohr's book is guaranteed to take us on adventure that could be mind bending and soul expanding. It could deepen our faith and commitment in new ways. Look elsewhere in this newsletter for the schedule of meetings. Books will be available for purchase soon.

What a whirlwind has been this summer and fall! It feels like this day, the strong winds whipping the remaining leaves and stripping them from the trees!

You will find in these pages the imprints and reminders of what this church is and does, from Ministry reports to chronicles from Broadway to programs that were, to programs to come. There are always too many people to name but when I think about it, it is EVERYONE in this community, even our dear friends and members who cannot always be here and live far away! For all your joy, song, work, prayer, contemplation and love for this church I give deepest thanks.

We enter the time of nature retreating into itself for rejuvenation and renewal, a significant reminder that we who too are of nature must rejuvenate and renew. I hope worship helps serve this purpose as well as our study time, special services during Advent and Lent, and through the new year.

"The essential function of religion is to radically connect us with everything. (Re-ligio = to re-align or reconnect.) It is to help us see the world and ourselves in wholeness, and not just in parts." (ibid. Rohr) If we are feeling disconnected, unaligned or out of sorts in the church we have more work to do to change that.

May the Universal Christ be our connecting Way.

Peace,

Rev. Bill Beardslee

December 22	Chapters 7 and 8

STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 10th

The theme of this year's stewardship program is The Way as in the life of faith that is a way of being human, a way of interpreting, a way of practicing, a way of living, as in the name given to the followers of Jesus in the early church.

In his book, Free of Charge, Miroslav Volf writes that there are two irresistible false images of God that we run between and follow after:

1. the negotiator God who can be cruelly disappointing
2. the Santa Claus God who becomes our self-absorption writ large.

These images are contrary to the image of God as a purposeful and generous giver who challenges or calls us to imitate the joy and the goodness of God the Giver. It is more ecologically and theologically correct, that we are all midstream. If we are made in the image of God the Giver, we are a channel, not the catch basin of God's good gifts. We are not the final destination of the Creator's gifts.

When we allow God's gifts to flow through us, we emulate God the giver.

When we emulate God the negotiator, we move from an economy of generosity to an economy of extraction. How can we cut the best deal?

When we emulate Santa Claus, our generosity is limited. It enables insatiable desires and unaccountable behaviors because we cannot be bothered to be involved.

Again, when we allow God's gifts to flow through us we imitate God the giver. The gifts we give are not gifts that must be extracted or wrung from us as an obligation. They are gifts from God that flow through us, arising from our freedom. We participate in something larger than us. God's giving began before us and will continue long after us.

We are invited to participate in this generosity of

The Deering Community Church, UCC Moderator
Description: To effectively oversee and lead the governing board (Council) to develop and steward the structural and spiritual needs of this church and its ministries.

Since this is the last Newsletter for the 2019 year, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for continuously pitching in and helping this church work towards fulfilling its very own mission statement. Actions, sometimes even non-actions, thoughts, and prayers are all ways we can intentionally and genuinely provide support. We have been called to follow "The Way" of Christ's teachings. It is only through your gracious support that this church has been:

COMPASSIONATE, OPEN TO ALL, WHERE
 CHRIST'S TEACHING LEADS TO SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND ACTION.

There will always be work needing to be done both within the church's four walls as well as outside in our community. The willingness for each of us to reach out to each other and to provide hope, mercy and love to as many people as we can, whenever and wherever we can, is an all-important beginning. Small gestures can make a huge difference. Whatever we do or don't do, know it always makes a difference. Whenever there is a lapse in our awareness and/or loving participation, we need to be kind to ourselves, but then get back on the path, or 'way'. The grace of the Holy Spirit is always with us and will guide us toward that next step. There is no doubt in my mind or heart that the Christ-Love found in this church will continue to grow as we move toward 2020. It is with great love and admiration that I thank you all. Please allow me to extend a special thanks to a few folks for the fruits of their labor over this past year.

I want to thank Barbara Glauner and her son, David. They have shown patience, grace, dedication, and grit. It is no small feat producing this Newsletter! Getting everyone's entries in on time requires reminding folks, re-reminding and working closely with the Ministry Coordinators, Pastor and the church's Admin Assistant. David also takes time to reach out and make himself available for the extensive work that he does on our website.

We were very fortunate to be able to bring someone with the tremendous skill-sets of Ginks Leiby into the fold (so to speak!) as the Admin Assistant this year. Her presence has been keenly felt in the office for Bill and Ministry Area Coordinators as well as people calling or emailing the church. Besides working in the office and strictly as a community member and friend, Ginks also provided extraordinary support to the church and Guild's "Summer Faire Steering Committee" as well.

The Women's Guild and this church have been graced with the expertise, artistic and creative efforts of Glenice L'Heureux and her mother-in-law "Claudette" in running the profitable "Attic Treasures" thrift shop. They have devoted too many Saturdays from 9-1:00 because of so few people stepping up to help out on an occasional Saturday. The AT has provided financial assistance towards the outreach and community support that the church and Guild provide. Their efforts were particularly noted during this year's "Summer Faire" where their work, in organizing and beautifully displaying furniture and an incredible array of items, was greatly appreciated by church and community members alike.

The fabulous Summer Faire of 2019 could not have happened without the extraordinary efforts of Genara Clay, Co-Chair of the Summer Faire Steering Committee, representing the Women's Guild, and Jessica Vitkauskas, the Co-Chair representing the church. Unbelievable! We had such a huge turnout of vendors and community members that had never before attended the Faire! These two ladies brought delightful new entries such as the children's 'Cupcake Eating Contest' and the free 'Ice Cream Social' that everyone loved! Their efforts, along with a much appreciated group of individuals (church, Guild and community members combined) pulled off an incredible event. We all owe you such a debt of gratitude!

Without question, we should also be thanking Peter Cram and his workday crew, some of which are not even members of this church – but all are dedicated to the preservation of this building and enabling the church to act as a church. There is no way this church could function, stay warm – or cool- without their stupendous work. Peter's more-than-ample breakfasts keep the workers coming! They paint, construct, restore, clean and keep us safe.

Bryan Terry

There are no words to adequately express my humble thanks to one who has poured out her heart and soul for this church and for our surrounding communities. Music Director, Jane Waters, has brought such a depth of love and spirituality to the music program of this church. It is through her perpetual reaching out to the community that we have broadened our own church family. The pews were packed for the "Lullaby on Broadway" show on October 11th. The camaraderie, joy, singing and being in community with so many people, was just beautiful.

Pastor Bill, Ministry Area Coordinators, congregants, and friends have all brought much love and laughter to this church. Through the pain and tears, the joy and glee, the uncertainties and the fears, the glue of spiritual promise and growth bind us together. We could not be a church, we could not be followers of "The Way", and we would have a difficult time being true to ourselves and our God, if we were not graced with the love of the Holy Spirit. We are reminded of this through the words and more importantly, through the genuine actions of our Pastor, Bill Beardslee.

As I thank each of you and acknowledge my gratitude for all you are and all you have done, I also thank the Lord that you are a part of my world.

November and December bring blustery weather and time to reflect. Thanksgiving allows for a deeper understanding and appreciation for all which with we have been blessed. There are many of us who have faced hardship and heartbreaking pain, yet we have the love of our family and friends.

Remember that there are always those more unfortunate than us. If you can, reach out to those who need comforting, as well as taking the time to be kind to yourself.

Please note all the up-coming special services and activities our church offers to you. Please also take the time to invite and bring members of your family or the community that would benefit from joining in. Perhaps we can even bring some of these activities out to the surrounding community! All services, forums, events and activities are open to anyone wishing to participate. This is not our church, but rather, we are God's church. Let us be thankful and ecstatic for the little babe whose birth we will soon be celebrating, that is the essence of love. It is this love that we celebrate. Keep your lamps lit and let them shine!

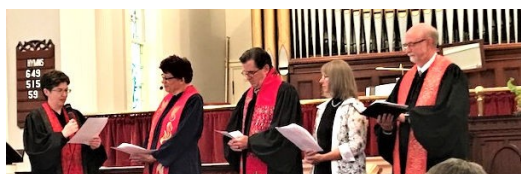

I wish you a blessed and joyous Christmas and look forward to seeing what we can do together in 2020!

Mission statement: The Pastor Parish Relations Committee covenants with the Deering Community Church to support and sustain connection and communication between the Pastor and the congregation through kind collaborative listening, education and ongoing mutual evaluation for a healthy community.

Members: Pastor Bill Beardslee, Jeanne Bartlett, Pasca Ferwerder, Peg Hauschildt, Joyce Peace, Bryan Terry

Pastor Bill states, "I am available to be Your Pastor."

As we know, many things have changed in our culture. In the past we could pick up the phone to call a friend and chat, if they were available. Now, it seems that fewer folks call, they will often text instead or even text to see if you're free for a call!

During our PPRM discussions we've heard Pastor Bill say that he would enjoy the opportunity to become more acquainted with members of our congregation. He would be pleased to be invited to meet with you in your home or in the church office. We sincerely encourage you to reach out to Pastor Bill, call when you would like a visit, and keep him informed if something has happened in your life. He is truly available to be our Pastor. Please feel free to schedule time with Pastor Bill. He is in the office on Tuesday and Thursday generally between 9 am to 5 pm. You can reach him at: Phone (603) 491-7644 or e-mail billwfb7@gmail.com.

Office Report

Ginks Leiby

Dear Church Members and Friends,

A couple of weeks ago the Ricoh copier in the office decided it had had enough. It sits there now forlornly with an "Out of Order" sign on it. In early summer we had a Ricoh technician in who cleaned it thoroughly and told us it needed about $300 of new equipment installed – charge rollers a new drum and a blade. We chose not to pour more money into the copier and surprisingly, none of those things caused its demise. The mother board circuit for the controls decided it had had enough poking and prodding by the masses and up and quit. No lights and no action. As old technology, it may be good that it finally quit. Peter Cram is busy investigating new technology that based on affordability and positive reviews may soon sit in the office to meet the needs of the church.

As early fall starts to stretch into mid to late fall, I have found myself busier than expected with all kinds of marketing. I thoroughly enjoyed helping Jane Waters and her talented singers with their poster, program, and marketing needs for the Broadway Singers Production. Whenever there is a special program at the church, we get the word out by using a variety of media both online and traditional. Facebook posts and posters, newspapers and e-calendars, websites and programs, the mix seems never-ending and each has its audience and purpose. There is a very satisfying rhythm to it all however and a feeling of accomplishment as each type of marketing is checked off the list.

In general though, fall is quieter than the summer months. In the office, I await the annual report, the budget, and of course the holidays as we finalize the year and look forward to what will happen next year as plans are laid, things change, and new projects get started. It won't be quiet for long.

From Barbara Glauner: My office computer died and David just replaced it with a new one adding mirrored hard drives. He just finished transferring and reloading all my data this past weekend and I am just now getting this newsletter done on it. Here's a BIG thank you to David!

Thank You: Your Deacons wish to thank all those who have assisted during Worship in the regular and special Worship Services held at this church. Whether it be ringing the bell, lighting candles, helping with the Offering or even helping the children as they learn to engage in the Worship Service &/or with the Children's Message, we want you to know how grateful we are. Your help and support with refreshments during coffee hour is also a blessing for all. We are truly thankful to Christine Marcroft for ensuring that we have coffee to go along with whatever refreshments the rest of us bring in! Thank you for being the caring and supportive community that welcomes "all to the table"!

Congregational Care: Deacons are seeking help with the following areas:

- Welcoming new comers to the community through "Welcome Baskets"
- Nurturing newer families to our church
- Reaching out to sick or home-bound folks

Please let one of the Deacons know if any of these areas interest you in any way. Short-term projects, a one-time activity or simply sharing ideas would help us to be more of the caring and active church we strive to be. Thank you.

Music Program- by Jane Waters: Music Director

On Friday, October 11 @ 7PM Lullaby of Broadway Singers brought together a most enthusiastic audience to enjoy familiar songs from musical theater. The sanctuary was virtually transformed into a theater with a burgundy velvet curtain and large sign saying BROADWAY as background for the singers. Musical selections ran the gamut from "Oklahoma" to "Hair" with our choir members joined by several familiar faces from the community. It was a pleasure to welcome two new performers, Jay Emmert and Gerry Foss who sang wonderfully and added their professional touch to the theater setting by providing the curtain and sign. Aside from wonderful voices, it was nice to have Brian Blanchard play his guitar as well as the harmonica. On a special note, Carol Hubert singing I Cain't Say No! was a comedic sensation! And she said she had never sung a solo before! Everyone had a good time and said it was just plain fun! Special appreciation goes to our wonderful Pastor Bill for his undying support which enables us to do these performances. We are most grateful to Ginks Leiby for all the beautifully designed posters, post cards, and programs, and for getting out the advertisements in the local papers. Finally, we are thankful for the most generous donations given by our wonderful audience. These are going into a music budget for a future performance as well as the purchase of a professional piano bench. Friday, October 5, 2020, is on the calendar for another special event, so mark your calendars!

Remember: Please reach out to Pastor Bill or any of the Deacons with thoughts or ideas that you feel might heighten your experience during the Worship Service. We welcome your thoughts on spiritual growth opportunities, book studies or ways to enhance congregational care.

Christian Education Ministry

Carol Hubert

To provide educational opportunities to build evolving, caring, spiritual relationships between God, neighbor and self, based on biblical foundations, and thought-provoking activities.

Well, our campground closed October 14, and we drove home to Connecticut with the challenge of coordinating Christian Education from three hours away. Before we left New Hampshire, we attended the planning meeting and laid our vision for the next church year. We are coordinating with Deacons and Outreach where appropriate. We are a committee of two with advisors, but we have a plan on how to serve the children and the adults. Jack has been a wonderful co-leader, and we have scheduled several 2nd hour, after-church activities from May to October. Chris Nase has made a commitment to do a children's message once a month. Blessing to her for that. I am working on my transportation and lodging plans for a visit in November and December. Blessing and peace to all, Carol.

Council Ministry Reports

Chris Nase

Mission: To represent and serve the congregation, using deliberate action, collaboration and leadership. Council members carry out the functional and ministerial working of the church to build a faith-based community of Christ love.

The Council met on July 21, 2019 and August 13, 2019. The July 21st meeting was held directly after the church service and all members were invited to stay and witness the Council meeting in action. The Faire preparation was a key area mentioned. Electricity has been added to the pavilion and at the half-way point in the year our budget is at 45%. The Safe Church Policy was explained and reviewed with all present. Copies of the policy are available at church and can be emailed as well. Please read the policy and send questions to Bill Beardslee, Chris Nase, Jess Vitkauskas or Amanda Gunter.. Information about the August 13th meeting will be included in the next newsletter. Our next meeting is September 10, 2019 at 7 p.m.

The Council met on September 10, 2019 and October 8, 2019 as well as on September 12, 2019 for a special meeting examining the Safe Church Policy.

Highlights from these meeting include –

Pastoral Parrish Relations reported that Bill welcomes people to drop in to see him when he is at church and to make sure we all inform him of congregational concerns. This ministry is also trying to ensure that Bill does not do too much. The Resource Ministry continues to work on the location of a trash shed and the purchase of a snow blower and where to store it. Peter also found a home for the Dr. Yeaple portrait. He contacted the Lakeside Presbyterian Church in Rochester, NY where Dr. Yeaple had served as a minister and they would like to have his portrait. The Guild asked about possible styles and locations for a sign signifying that Attic Treasures are open. Ministry area budgets are due November 7. Council voted to approve our church hosting the annual Hillsboro Association meeting on May 3, 2020. Our next meeting is November 12, 2019 at 7 p.m.

Guild Gleanings

Jeanne Bartlett

Mission: The purpose of this organization shall be to enrich the spiritual life and friendship of women in our communities, to aid our churches especially in benevolent work, and to cooperate with state and national societies in world friendship programs.

Pasca Ferwerda read a poem of Maya Angelou's for Devotions at our September meeting called Phenomenal Woman. Here is an excerpt: Pretty women wonder where my secret lies/ I'm not cute to suit a fashion model's size/But when I start to tell them,/ They think I'm telling lies./I say,/ It's in the reach of my arms,/ The span of my hips,/ The stride of my step,/ The curl of my lips./I'm a woman/ Phenomenally./Phenomenal woman, That's me. And so they are, these women who meet on the first Wednesday of each month to start with lunch and member updates always remembering a birthday, or need of a healing, sending cards and good wishes. So many are included in their outreach into the community, through proceeds from Attic Treasures open every Saturday where shoppers can find a good book, a kitchen item, a child's toy, a puzzle for a shut-in and much more. This project is much in need of volunteer staff. Glenice has done a great job by posting items from the shop for sale on social media.

At the business meeting, discussion about the Summer Faire ensued, expressing what went so well, along with some wise suggestions for improvement of the next one. The church refrigerator holds the surplus Vermont Grafton cheese from the faire, continuing to improve with age. It is available for sale throughout the fall.

Jeanne Bartlett

The October 2nd meeting was held at The American Legion. June Holm is the chef there and she is a member of the Guild and as hostess of the month she prepared a delicious apple pie. Many of our members were not in attendance, so outing plans were postponed indefinitely.

Budget and Nominating committees will be formed at our November 6th meeting.

A speaker is planned for the December 4th meeting. Linda Graham will speak about Great Old Broads for Wilderness. It is a national grassroots organization, led by women, that engages and inspires activism to preserve and protect wilderness and wild lands.

All women in our communities are invited to come to our meetings and make new friends on the first Wednesday of each month at noon. Bring a box lunch for yourself and enjoy our birthday cake and coffee or tea. These meetings take place in the parish hall in Deering Community Church. We look forward to seeing you there!

Outreach Ministry

Chris Nase

Mission— To incorporate the work of social action and mission in the local and global communities by proposing projects, educating, and enlisting the support of our church membership. .

Jeanne Bartlett recently cleaned up the UKAMA table and as she read some of the material her interest in our partnership with Rimbi was rekindled and renewed. As she shared her information with our ministry, we were all inspired and plan to take a more active role in supporting our partnership. Several members of our ministry wrote letters in support of a compassionate and humane immigration policy and sent them to Rev. Gordon Rankin who brought them to Washington D.C. when he and other clergy met with members of Congress.

Humanities Forums with pictures from Christine Marcroft

Here are some pictures of our Humanities Forum on September 15th arranged by Don Johnson. It was given by Abby Hutchinson's Sweet Freedom Songs. Deborah Ann Goss impersonated Abby H. entertaining us with songs and stories of the Struggle for Abolition and Women's Suffrage during the mid-19th century. It was very interesting to hear about Abby's family being such an influence on healthy living and social justice – and most prominently the abolition of slavery.

The pictures and description following by Christine Marcroft are of another great forum arranged this season by Don Johnson through the Humanities programs. It is called 'Oney Judge, George Washington's escaped slave'. We thoroughly enjoyed Gwendolyn Quezaire Presuiti's performance as Oney, the slave. She WAS Oney and told her story about her life with the Washington's, and especially mentioned how tough the Mrs. was!! A very touching story. We were all spellbound.

These following pictures are from Sept 22, Honoring our History, with Don Johnson, Jeanne Bartlett, Joyce Peace and Kay Daniels sharing their memories about growing up and living in Deering and answering questions about their experiences. Their stories were rich in humor and information and were enjoyed by everyone! Thank you, dear friends!
